- d) Second Engineer Officers;
- e) 3rd Engineer Officers;
- f) 2nd Officers;
- g) Radio Officers;
- h) Crane Engineers;
- i) Electrical Officers;
- j) Electronic Officers;
- k) Dynamic Positioning Officers;
- l) Any other person or persons who are mutually accepted as Officers.

B) EFFECTIVE DATE AND DURATION

1. This Agreement shall come into effect from 1st April 2006 (Except where different dates have been specified) and shall remain in force till 31st March 2008 and shall continue thereafter, unless by a notice of 120 days which notice could be served prior to 31st March 2008, either party terminates the same. On the expiry of such notice, but not prior to 31st March 2008, this Agreement shall remain terminated. Notwithstanding such termination, however, the Agreement shall continue to remain in force and binding on the parties until the date of coming into effect of a fresh Agreement substituting this Agreement,

3. On receipt of such notice terminating this Agreement both parties undertake to Negotiate revision thereof as expeditiously as possible.

C) RECOGNITION

4. The Company recognizes the Union as the sole representative of all the Merchant Navy Officers in its employ.
5. Both the Company and the Union feel that greater harmony and better relations will prevail and that Officers' interest would be more adequately represented and better served if all the officers become members of the Union and continue to remain members in good standing.

6. The company agrees to notify the Union whenever it proposes to make any new appointments and while making new appointments the Company shall give preference to such officers as agreed to be members of the Union. The Company, however, reserves the right to appoint any officer it deems fit.
7. On advice from the Union, the Company shall collect Union Subscriptions and other Union dues and levies from all its Officers by making recoveries thereof and remit to the Union or pay into the Union's Bank Account the amounts so collected. The Company, however, shall not entertain any arguments by Officers regarding the amounts so collected and paid to the Union or deposited into its Bank Account.
8. Subject to the convenience of the Company, leave with pay, if due, shall be allowed to any member of the Union who is called upon by the Union to serve as a delegate or as an Official of the Union for such period as may be mutually agreed. If no such leave is due to him, he shall be allowed leave without pay without loss of lien on his job.

9. The period of deputation for which no leave wages are paid, will not be considered period of service, and the Officers concerned will not be entitled to leave, bonus, seniority and gratuity etc., in respect of such period nor shall such periods count towards assessing eligibility for gratuity.

DUTY CYCLE (IN INDIA)

27. For Officers on Off-Shore Support Vessels the duty cycle is maintained at 45 days on and 45 days off.

26 weeks paid off period for 26 weeks service on board off-shore support vessels per annum or pro-rata "on equal on and equal off" rotational basis, which will ordinarily not be more than 45 days duration. For periods of medical leave, periods "On Staff" and period of journey before posting on the ship, leave will be calculated at the rate of 132 days per year or pro-rata thereof.

DUTY CYCLE (OVERSEAS)

28. For officers on Off-Shore Support Vessels working on assignment overseas, the duty cycle will be 90 days on and 90 days off.

OSVs not employed commercially-Leave

29. When an Officer on Offshore Support vessel is idle (not employed commercially) for the period more than 10 days the leave earned will be at reduced rate of 13 days per month of service and not on the basis of equal on and equal off. Suitable instructions will be given to the Master prior to completion of 10 days of such lay up when duty cycle will be altered accordingly.

PROLONGED SERVICE ALLOWANCE (INDIA)

30. Due to exigencies of service when an Officer is not relieved to enjoy off periods after 45 days of service on board an Off-Shore Support Vessel, he will be eligible to Prolonged Service Allowance as under :

For 46 days to 74 days service	20% of basic wages for the period in excess of 45 days.
For service over 74 days	25% of basic wages for the entire period upto 75 days.
For period in excess of 75 days	50% of basic wages for the excess period
Prolonged Service abroad 91 days to 119 days service	20% of basic wages for the period in excess of 90 days.
For service over 119 days	25% of basic wages for the entire period upto 120 days.
For the period in excess of 120 days	50% of basic wages for the excess period

In computing the above period, the duration of time the Officer is "On Staff" in the interim period after discharge from one ship awaiting posting on subsequent ship, shall be included. However, the initial period he is "On Staff" after reporting back to the company for resumption of duties after enjoying his off/leave period and awaiting posting on the first ship shall be excluded.

The Officer on his own request shall be relieved from duty on completion of a total period of 90 days of duty.

ON STAFF

31. An Officer on or after 1-4-2006 reporting back for duty from leave on expiry of ten days notice or after hospitalisation and awaiting posting, is not posted due to non availability of ship will be paid "On Staff" wages for the actual number of days he is on Staff, on the following basis :

- (a) If the Officer has his own accommodation in port where he is kept "On Staff", he shall be paid Rs.410/- per day.
- (b) If the Company provides accommodation but the Officer chooses to arrange his own messing, he shall be paid Rs.480/- per day.
- (c) If the Officer chooses to arrange his own board and lodging, he shall be paid Rs.1380/- per day.
- (d) Where the Company provides messing

but the Officer chooses to arrange his own accommodation, he shall be paid Rs.480/- per day.

32. During hotel stay of Officers, minimum requirement is independent self contained air conditioned room.

33. In the event the Company is unable to post the officer on the vessel due to non availability of vessel, it may advise the Officer to continue to be on leave. Such advice must be communicated to the Officer at least ten days before the expiry of his sanctioned leave. The Company must ensure that in such an exigency, the Officer does not continue to be on leave for unreasonably long period, but is assigned a vessel within 30 days of expiry of the 10 day notice period. Such leave will be adjusted against his accumulated leave. If the Officer does not have accumulated leave, he may be allowed to report for duty.

CONVEYANCE EXPENSES

34. In all cases where an Officer is required to attend any Office on Company's business or to report on a vessel, the Company shall provide transport to the Officer. In the event the Company is unable to provide transport to the Officer, he shall be reimbursed conveyance expenses @ Rs.325/ - per day. If attending Office or reporting on a vessel involves more than one return trip, the Officer shall be paid conveyance expenses actually incurred or the stipulated amount, whichever is higher.

REPATRIATION

35. After every active service while attached to Off-Shore Support vessel, the Company will arrange repatriation to every Officer as per relevant provisions of repatriation.

On Signing Off, the Officer will be entitled to two day's staff wages and his sanctioned leave will commence thereafter.

36. During the journey, he shall be entitled to class of accommodation and traveling allowance as per Clause 25 to and from his Home Town and also full wages of his rank for journey both ways.
37. The Officer shall have the option to be paid cash amount to reimburse the travel expenses, other allowances and journey wages. Otherwise, the Company shall arrange his booking by the class of travel to which he is entitled. Once the company has made such reservation, the officer shall have no objection regarding journey arrangement. In view of the above, repatriation to Home Port will cease.

38. An officer on paid or authorized unpaid leave shall give at least 10 days' notice in writing to the Head Office of the Company of his intention to resume duty specifying therein the date of his readiness to resume. On his return from leave, he shall report in writing and in person to the Head Office of the Company, unless directed other wise in writing by the Company.
39. An officer not relieved on leave as per provisions of the agreement is entitled to carry forward the unavailed benefit of repatriation and avail of the same on subsequent occasion when otherwise he is not entitled to repatriation.

ENCASHMENT OF LEAVE :

40. If desired by an Officer he shall be allowed to encash leave accumulated in excess of 120 days with an additional amount of 40% of the basic pay with Victualling Allowance (no other allowance will be payable). In the event he resigns within 12 months of such encashment he shall refund the extra 40% already paid to him.

However, an Officer in continued service for a minimum period of 15 years or on Superannuation whichever is earlier shall be eligible for encashment of leave over 120 days at twice the basic wages and Victualling Allowance.

41. The following Clauses in the INSA-MUI Agreement for Foreign-Going Officers of 2006-2008 shall also be applicable to this Agreement for Off-Shore Supply vessels/ Specialized vessels or any type of vessels including crane/hook-up/accommodation barges/MODU engaged for services in the Off-shore oil industry for 2006-2008.

29, Walchand Hirachand Marg
Mumbai 400 038.

Dear Sir,

Sub: Revision of OSV Officer's wages on the basis of Consolidation for the period effective from 1st April 2002 to 31st March 2004.

With reference to the above, pursuant to the discussions held between the INSA
Negotiating Committee and The Maritime Union of India representatives the following were mutually agreed to between both the parties :

1. Payment of Arrears:

Arrears arising out of revision of basic wages, basic wage related "variable shipboard allowances" and "fixed shipboard allowances" effective from 1.4.2002 upto 31.10.2003 will be calculated and paid to the Officers by the Company within 30 days of the date of signing the Agreement.

2. Reimbursible allowances, such as Travelling and Porterage, Conveyance, On-Staff expenses etc. already paid upto 31.10.2003 will neither be recovered from the Officer nor will arrears be payable to the Officer.

3. Implementation of Consolidated system will be effective from 1.11.2003.

We would request you to kindly confirm your acceptance of the above.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

Sd/-
